Ir is probable Carter H. Harrison, son of the late Mayor Carter H., of Chicago, who was assassinated some years ago, will become the nominee of the Altgeld faction for Mayor at -dre spring election. He is a man of considerable ability and is quite popalar, but Chicago will never elect a silverite to the mayoralty in the approaching election.

Ir is said that Peffer and his workskers will not be likely to get back to the United States senate. The holy three holy, Populistic politicions seem not to be entirely devoid of personal ambition, and some one among the other aspirants is about to clip the festive Peffer's wings. The senator can very readily be spared but it is not likely an abler man can be found among the Populistic statesmanlets of Kansas.
